| Šiaulių State University of Applied Sciences | The study subject list for Autumn semester is usually formed by May for the next academic year and for Spring semester – by October. There are two study subject lists, one for the fall and one for the spring. Every year, they are usually similar, but there could be some changes. https://svako.lt/en/international-relations/erasmus-plus/courses-for-incoming-students                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |

|                    | On entering the Spanish territory, travelers are required to present a passport or, in its absence, an identity or travel document recognized by international conventions, in accordance with standard reciprocity criteria. Presentation of a National I.D. Card will suffice in the case of citizens of EU Member States, Switzerland, Norway, Iceland, and the Principalities of Andorra, Monaco and Liechtenstein.                                                                                                                                               |
|                    | In compliance with the regulations of the European Union, of which Spain is a member, visitors proceeding from a certain number of countries are required to hold a standard visa, application for which must be made at the Spanish Consulate in the applicant's country of residence ( http://www.exteriores.gob.es/ > Embajadas y Consulados).                                                                                                                                                                         |
|                    | Please notice that semester international students are normally awarded a SSU visa (Estudios hasta 180 días) and students staying longer will normally be awarded a SLU visa (and, once in Spain, they will be obliged to apply for a compulsory Autorización de estancia por estudios en España immediately after arriving in Jaén at Subdelegación de Gobierno de Jaén – Oficina de Extranjeros, Plaza de las Batallas 2, 23007 Jaén 953 999 060). A permanent address is compulsory for applying for the so-called Autorización de Estancia por Estudios en España |

| Örebro University    | Depending on where you come from, you may need to apply for a residence permit and/or an entry visa before you come to Sweden. If so, please make sure to apply as soon as you receive your Letter of Acceptance. Please note that Örebro University cannot assist you in the visa/residence permit application process. All students with citizenship in a country outside the European Union (EU) are required to obtain a residence permit before entering Sweden. Please read the information on the Swedish Migration Agency's website or get in touch with a Swedish Consulate/Embassy as soon as possible to get further information on what is required in order to obtain the residence permit. You will need the Letter of Acceptance when applying for the residence permit.The Swedish Migration Agency's information for non-EU citizens All incoming exchange students are covered by the insurance Student IN, supplied by Kammarkollegiet (The Legal, Financial and Administrative Services Agency). the insurance is limited and covers for example necessary and reasonable costs for emergency medical or dental care if the insured suffers illness or has an accident during the policy term. EU/EEA students should primarily use the European Health Insurance Card issued in their home countries. Please read the terms and conditions carefully. Additional insurance might be necessary. They apply for this at the city council's Ausländerbehörde (Foreigners' Registration Office) after registration at Bielefeld University. For more information see: https://www.study-in-germany.de/en/germany/arrival/residence-permit/ Health insurance for students is obligatory in Germany and valid proof of it has to be transmitted for enrolment, otherwise enrolment is not possible. Students from EU member states have to present the European Health Insurance Card (EHIC) - if applicable - or an equivalent insurance certificate. The EHIC or certificate must be valid until the official end of the semester (31 March or 30 September) or until the end of the academic year (30 September) if students are staying for two semesters. Non-EU citizens need to buy a public/statutory student health insurance in Germany. Please note: mere travel insurances are not sufficient for enrolment as a student! All students are asked to ensure that they have adequate insurance cover. |

| Université de Tours                          | Apply for accommodation in a public student residence (CROUS)In France, public student residences are managed by the CNOUS (Centre national des œuvres universitaires et scolaires) at a national level. On a local level, public student residences in Tours are managed by the CROUS. Further information is available on the Campus France website, the French government's website, and the CROUS' website. The IRO facilitates the access of international exchange students coming from our partner institutions to CROUS public student residencies, and serves as a direct communication channel between the two parties, in order to ensure a smooth and correct process. Right after the official nomination, concerned students will be provided with information about their accommodation options, and the procedure corresponding to their choice. Should there be any uncertainties or subsequent questions about the process, students can contact incoming.mobility@univ-tours.fr, who will offer support throughout the entire process. Application deadlines for public student residences <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• beginning of June for mobilities starting in the first semester</li> <li>• mid-November for mobilities starting in the second semester</li> </ul> NB: The accommodation request form must be sent to incoming.mobility@univ-tours.fr together with the registration form signed by the home university. Failure to comply will lead to the form not being accepted. |
