

NEOLAIa Staff Mobility for Training

WP4 – Task 4.3 Launching and sustaining NEOLAIa Staff Mobility for Training

Dear NEOLAIa colleagues, NEOLAIa activities also involve building international staff teams in different fields across universities, enhancing their expertise, and thus in renovating the supportive processes necessary for a close and effective collaboration. This activity targets NEOLAIa expert staff in a wide range of offices and agendas in order to foster their professional development. Below you will find the initial training offer, which will be continuously expanded and updated. For further information contact a staff training team member from your university - see contact list below.
