NEOLAiA
TRANSFORMING REGIONS FOR AN INCLUSIVE EUROPE

Co-funded by the European Union

JOIN A BLENDED INTENSIVE PROGRAMME (BIP) ON PLURILINGUAL EDUCATION IN HIGHER EDUCATION

Common Accreditation Certificate for Plurilingual Education (CoACe): From Theory to Practice: EMI, Updated Communication Skills, and Pronunciation in Plurilingual Classrooms coordinated by the University of Jaén and developed in collaboration with all NEOLAiA universities

February–April 2027

The course invites academics from NEOLAiA universities across all disciplines who teach through English as a Medium of Instruction (EMI) to participate in an international and interdisciplinary professional development experience. Participants will explore a range of topics and tools relevant to teaching and learning in higher education, while sharing experiences and best practices in a collaborative academic environment.

The program aims to empower academics to design inclusive, student-centered, and effective teaching practices in bi- and plurilingual higher education contexts. Participants will explore theoretical foundations, communication skills, digital tools, and inclusive strategies aligned with plurilingual education principles.

As a Blended Intensive Program (BIP), the course consists of digital and on-site activities: it includes 5 webinars and an on-site week at the University of Jaén, Spain. Participants will apply for ERASMUS+ staff mobility funding at their home university to attend the on-site week. A course certificate will be issued upon the successful completion of the course.
